TOWNSHIP BOARD REPRESENTATIVE REPORT: Leo Oswald informed the Planning Commission the Township Board decided that Rome Township employees will be paid with direct deposit only. The Board also agreed to purchase the permitting add-on of the BS&A Software. The Board also approved a PA116 application for Calby Garrison. The Board renewed the Township Insurance Plan and purchased a new printer for voter ID cards.

PLANNING COMMISSION CHAIR REPORT: Chairperson Rob Apoian inquired how the Township was coming along with getting signs for the various cemeteries and Township Hall. Also asked how the Road Commission was coming along with maintenance on Cemetery Rd.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. Review Rome Township Land Use Plan.

The Planning Commission had another lengthy discussion regarding the Land Use map as it currently stands. Pat Bournes was able to get a list of properties with commercial zoning from the Lenawee County Equalization Department. It was decided this list would be provided to the Township Treasurer and she'd be asked if the BS&A website might differentiate the zoning.
